

Slayer launch 'Reign In Blood' wine in Sweden

Written by Johan Nylander

Thursday, 03 May 2012 03:27 - Last Updated Tuesday, 08 May 2012 16:06

---

- Madonna wears Swedish jeans in 'Girl Gone Wild'

Are you a fan of classic hard-rock? Do you love red wine? Well, the perfect combination has just been launched in Sweden.{jcomments on}

Slayer have joined the likes of Motorhead, AC/DC and Kiss to launch their very own red wine range, music site Lick Library said. The wine – called "Reign In Blood" – is currently only available in Sweden.

"Sweden is a good market to start with. We are a small country but we have incredibly dedicated fans, which makes it worthwhile to do the test launch in Sweden", Brands For Bands who are behind the launch told Swedish magazine Dagens Media.

The Slayer "Reign In Blood" is named after the bands classic 1986 album and Californian Cabernet Sauvignon.

Slayer launch 'Reign In Blood' wine in Sweden

Written by Johan Nylander

Thursday, 03 May 2012 03:27 - Last Updated Tuesday, 08 May 2012 16:06

---

"Enjoy it while headbanging, riffing or with food, friends and great music. Reign in Wine!" a press release said.

